

The Native American Ministry Council of Christ Church Cathedral seeks applications from persons interested in being a part of a shared mission experience in Navajoland in July 2018.

Description of the Mission to Navajoland: One week-long session at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Coalmine, New Mexico, from July 14 through July 21. A group of 6-9 persons is planned. We will be working with Navajo church leaders in offering a Vacation Bible School and completing a building project — painting the exterior of St. Mark's church building.

Please supply the following information and return/forward the completed document to Christ Church Cathedral or to David Thomson, team leader, at thomsond@nku.edu no later than April 22.
